DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES*Administration for Children and Families*Invitation To Comment on Child Welfare Outcomes and Measures

AGENCY: Administration on Children, Youth and Families, ACF, HHS.

ACTION: Notice of plan to report on outcomes and performance of State child welfare programs, and invitation to comment.

SUMMARY: Section 203 of the Adoption and Safe Families Act (ASFA), signed into law in November 1997, requires the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) “* * * in consultation with Governors, State legislatures, State and local public officials responsible for administering child welfare programs, and child welfare advocates * * * to develop a set of outcome measures (including length of stay in foster care, number of foster care placements, and number of adoptions) that can be used to assess the performance of States in operating child protection and child welfare programs * * .” In addition, the law requires that “ * * to the maximum extent possible, the outcome measures should be developed from data available from the Adoption and Foster Care Analysis and Reporting System.” Section 203 of ASFA also directs the Secretary to prepare and submit to Congress a report on the performance of each State on each outcome measure on May 1, 1999, and annually thereafter.

To meet these requirements, the Children's Bureau, the Federal agency charged with the task of implementing ASFA, engaged in a consultation process with various stakeholders. The outcomes presented in this notice are the result of the Children's Bureau's consultation process and reflect widely-held performance objectives for child welfare program practice. This notice is to advise the public of DHHS's plan to report on these outcomes for State child welfare programs and to invite public comment on them. This notice can be found at <http://www.acf.dhhs.gov/programs/cb/special/index.htm>.

DATES: Written comments must be submitted to the office listed in the ADDRESS section below on or before March 4, 1999.

ADDRESS: Mail written comments (in duplicate) to Marianne Ruffy at the address below.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Marianne Ruffy, Children's Bureau, 330 C Street, SW, Washington, DC 20447.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Nation's child welfare systems are designed to protect children who have suffered maltreatment, who are at risk for maltreatment, or who are under the care and placement responsibility of the State because their families are unable to care for them. These systems also focus on securing permanent living arrangements for children who are unable to return home. The Children's Bureau is the agency within the Federal Government that is responsible for assisting State child welfare systems by promoting continuous improvement in the delivery of child welfare services.

The Adoption and Safe Families Act (ASFA) represents a significant effort on the part of the Federal Government to improve child welfare service systems. The ASFA establishes clear goals for children served by the Nation's child welfare systems—safety, permanency, and well-being. It calls on the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS), State officials, advocates, and other experts in the field to work together to identify useful outcome measures to gauge State and
